"Come and Experience the Power of God"

FUNNY FOOD FOR THOUGHT

It's hard to believe that summer is almost over, and we are back in full swing with school. Is it just me or has this year flown by? As I was thinking about everything getting back into a routine from all the summer activities, including getting back to church on a regular basis, I came across this little antidote I think you will find humorous. Enjoy!

Things to be Done for Everyone to Attend Church on Sunday!

Cots will be placed in the foyer for those who say,

"Sunday is my only day to sleep in,"

Murine will be available for those with tired eyes from watching television late Saturday night.

We will have steel helmets for those who say,

"the roof would cave in if I ever came to church."

Blankets will be furnished for those who think the church is too cold and fans for those who say it is too hot.

There will be hearing aids for those who think the Pastor speaks too softly and cotton for those who say the music is too loud.

Score cards will be available for those who wish to list the hypocrites present.

Some relatives will be in attendance for those who like to go visiting on Sunday.

There will be 100 TV dinners for those who can't go to church and cook too.

One section of the church will be devoted to trees, and grass for those who like to see God in nature.
And finally, there will be poinsettias and Easter lilies for those who have never seen the church without them...

Always remember, it's not about us but about Him.
